GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

NOTICE READ CAREFULLY

- 1. In addition to political party nominations made at primaries, the Election Code permits political bodies to nominate candidates for public offices by filing political body nomination papers. This is the political body nomination paper form. It should not be used to nominate political party candidates for the primary or to nominate minor political party
- 2. INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING PREAMBLE (Section A): Name of Political Body -- All nomination papers must specify the name of the Political Body which the candidate(s) represent. Such name cannot be more than three words and cannot use words identical with, or deceptively similar to, any words used in the name of any existing political party, or of any political body which has already filed nomination papers for the same office(s). County of Signers -- Nomination papers may be on one or more sheets (each copy of this two-sided form is considered a "sheet"). However, different sheets must be used for signers resident in different counties. Insert the county of residence (only one) of the electors signing each sheet.
- 3. INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING CANDIDATE INFORMATION (Section B): The name of each candidate, and his/her occupation and place of residence must be listed. The correct title of the office which each such candidate is seeking must be indicated with the appropriate district number. NOTE: More than one candidate may be nominated by one set of nomination papers, provided that all the signers are eligible to vote for all offices for which such nominations are made.
- 4. INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING COMMITTEE TO FILL VACANCIES (Section C): All political body nomination papers must contain the names and addresses of a committee of not less than three (3) nor more than five (5) persons authorized to fill a vacancy or vacancies in the nomination(s) should they occur.
